ROSALIND EDDINS APPOINTED DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN NLRB'S MEMPHIS, TN REGIONAL OFFICE

General Counsel Ronald Meisburg of the National Labor Relations Board today announced the appointment of career attorney Rosalind Eddins as Deputy Regional Attorney in the Agency's Memphis, TN Regional Office (Region 26). Region 26 includes the Resident Offices in Nashville, TN and Little Rock, AR.

In her new position, Ms. Eddins will assist Regional Director Ronald Hooks and Regional Attorney Dorothy Wilson in the enforcement and administration of the National Labor Relations Act in Region 26, which services Tennessee, Arkansas, and counties in Mississippi and Kentucky.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act, the federal law that regulates labor-management relations in the private sector. The Agency conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates, prosecutes and remedies unfair labor practices committed by employers and unions.

Commenting on the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg remarked:

Rosalind Eddins is a talented individual and a dedicated public servant, who has earned high regard for her commitment and hard work as a field attorney in the Memphis Regional Office. I am very pleased that she is joining the region's management team as Deputy Regional Attorney.

A native of Memphis, Ms. Eddins received a B.A. degree in political science from LeMoyne Owen College in 1979 and a J.D. degree from the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law in 1989. She joined the NLRB as a field attorney in Memphis, TN in 1992.
